

SOARING TO NEW HEIGHTS - ACCELERATING YOUR PERSONAL GROWTH

For those really passionate and committed to their ongoing self-development, here is an additional action sheet that really extends the winning circle concept. I use this personally and add to it whenever I see or hear about a new course, podcast, book or person I believe I can learn from. There is no need to complete this all in one go. However it is a great tool to maximise the opportunity to learn, copy and add your 10% from those who are achieving great success or who demonstrate mastery in certain areas that you want to develop.
